Embdesp. 5251, May 27, 1957, returned on May 18, 1957, reporting conversation between Dr. James H. and Mrs. Williams of A-1 and Mrs. McCann of 1043.

Possible Re-opening of A- activities in Poland	Chief for Poland A-5
---------------------------------------------------	----------------------

1. Mrs. Irene Logodinska of 2144 W. Belmont Street, Chicago 46, President of the Polish Wharvey on May 18, during the above conference with the Polish Institute of Labor and Social Affairs provided the following information: American Relief for Poland (ARP) to this country. Mrs. Logodinska said the President of ARP in the United States, Dr. J. A. Sullivan of Milwaukee, to undertake preliminary negotiations with the Polish Government. Indicative of the attitude, it would appear in the decision to close down the Western European office which has in the past several years been assisting Polish refugees. It is not known to the Embassy whether this decision of ARP was communicated to the Polish officials and whether it had any influence upon the present negotiations to resume ARP work in Poland.

Miss Logodzinska said that she had already held two or three conversations, each with Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs Adam Danilewicz and with leading officials of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare, including Minister Stanislaw ZAWADZKI and Undersecretary JERZY HANOWICZ. These Polish officials, said Miss Logodzinska, had welcomed the idea of ARP returning to Poland. She expected, during the course of a further conference with the Ministry of Labor to be offered a contract to be signed, which would define the functions and activities of ARP. On this point she asked the Embassy's guidance. In reply, she was informed that she inasmuch as the Embassy had previously heard nothing of the details of the negotiation and had seen no copy of the proposed contract, it might be useful for Miss Logodzinska to receive the Polish proposal on the basis of referring it to her American associates. It subsequently developed that the "contract" took the form of what might be called a letter of intent of the Ministry of Labor to collaborate with ARP. Miss Logodzinska stated that when this letter was given to her, her signature was affixed to the letter's copy of the document merely as acknowledgment of the receipt of the letter. The text of the Ministry of Labor's letter of May 31 enclosed herewith as enclosure no. 1.

During the conversations with the reporting officers, Miss Logodzinaks said that she had been informed by some of the Polish officials, including Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs Winiewicz, that the Poles wished that the ARP should carry out the administration of CARE functions in Poland. Miss Logodzinaks said that she had not discussed this subject with Mr. Reuter of CARE, who has been in Warsaw during the past few days. Miss Logodzinaks also stated that Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs Winiewicz told her that the ARP would not be permitted to operate in Poland if it intended to have its gifts handled through the Roman Catholic Church's national or local officials. She also said Winiewicz indicated the regime did not want Cardinal WYSZYNSKI to get control over Caritas, the Catholic welfare group. No comment was made by the reporting officers on these subjects but the question was asked whether the American contributors to ARP were exclusively Catholic or Polish-American descent. Miss Logodzinaks said that although most of ARP's financial support came from this group, there were other contributors.

Miss Logodzinaks said that in her own opinion she felt that it might be possible for a two-member ARP delegation to come to Poland to work out further details of the relief program as early as July 1, 1957. At this date, she subsequently said, might be optimistic as it is possible that some of the ARP officials, perhaps including Dr. Swiatlik, will be in Geneva attending refugee meetings in June. Miss Logodzinaks, who was in Poland directing a group of eighty Polish-American women tourists, said that the group's schedule called for departure from Warsaw by bus on May 20, proceeding to Berlin, Dusseldorf, Paris, and Le Havre, apparently planning to sail for the United States in the early part of June.

COMMENTS:

1. As the Department will observe from the contents of the Ministry of Labor's letter, the subjects covered in the letter may require the authorization of other ministries to be put into effect.

2. The matter of sending individual parcels or gifts seems not to be part of the program of ARP, as it was explained by Miss Logodzinaks that bulk shipments addressed to Polish government agencies are contemplated. If that is indeed ARP's policy for Poland, some of the problems confronting Mr. Reuter of CARE (see Embassy despatch no. 525) will probably not arise.

3. As the estimate of the Bureau, that when and if the CARE organization learns that ARP would wish to administer the CARE program in Poland, CARE would be willing to agree.

4. The Department may find it advisable to ask representatives of CARE and of ARP to decide at an executive level, within the U.S., as to the extent to which the two organizations will coordinate their efforts in Ireland.

5. There may be fund-raising campaigns organized in the U.S. by the National Catholic Welfare Council or by other Catholic organizations. There has as yet been no visitor representing such interests to come to the Embassy. As there is the possibility of overlapping of jurisdiction between CARE and ARP, it is equally possible that the latter would recommend itself to the Department to request Catholic charitable organizations to be represented at any meeting in which CARE and ARP may attempt to work out complementary programs.

6. It appears doubtful that the ARP program can actually get under way earlier than September, according to the Embassy's experience with previous matters of this kind.

1. As a consequence of several conversations recently held in Warsaw and the receipt of the letter addressed to Miss Logodzinska from Dr. Swietlik of the American Relief for Poland, the present letter summarizes the position of the Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare.

2. The present letter presents a summary of conditions and terms which should be explained to a future delegation of the ARP, which would come to Warsaw to discuss in detail its lines of proposed action. All of the following points are contingent upon the availability of funds to the ARP.

3. The activities which the Ministry is interested in having ARP's help are the following:

- a. The furnishing of machinery and equipment for blacksmithing, knitting, shoe repairs, radio repairs and small shops;
- b. Tools and machinery for farmers;
- c. Equipment and supplies for homes for orphans, for the aged, and for hospitals for incurables. Such supplies would include wheelchairs, medical and dental instruments, bed linen, etc.
- d. The supplying of sewing machines and of small-sized laundry equipment;
- e. Assistance in the rehabilitation of cripples needing therapy and artificial limbs, including trades and crafts training for such individuals.
- f. Supplying of artificial limbs and other assistance for wounded war veterans, including especially braille typewriters, braille books and watches, and music in braille and instruction kits for use of braille.

7. The costs of the ARP delegation will be borne by the ARP.
